30 DAYS OF PRAYER FOR SCHOOLS

Day 5—Sunday, August 7—Pray for all who come to worship, may they be refreshed...may they learn something...may they be blessed by coming to the feet of Jesus, the master teacher, the author and finisher of the faith.

Day 6—Monday, August 8—Pray for families and students as they compile the needed supplies for their backpacks.

Day 7—Tuesday, August 9—Pray for first-year teachers as they complete lesson plans, get oriented to their new school building and prepare for meeting others they will be working with in the coming year.

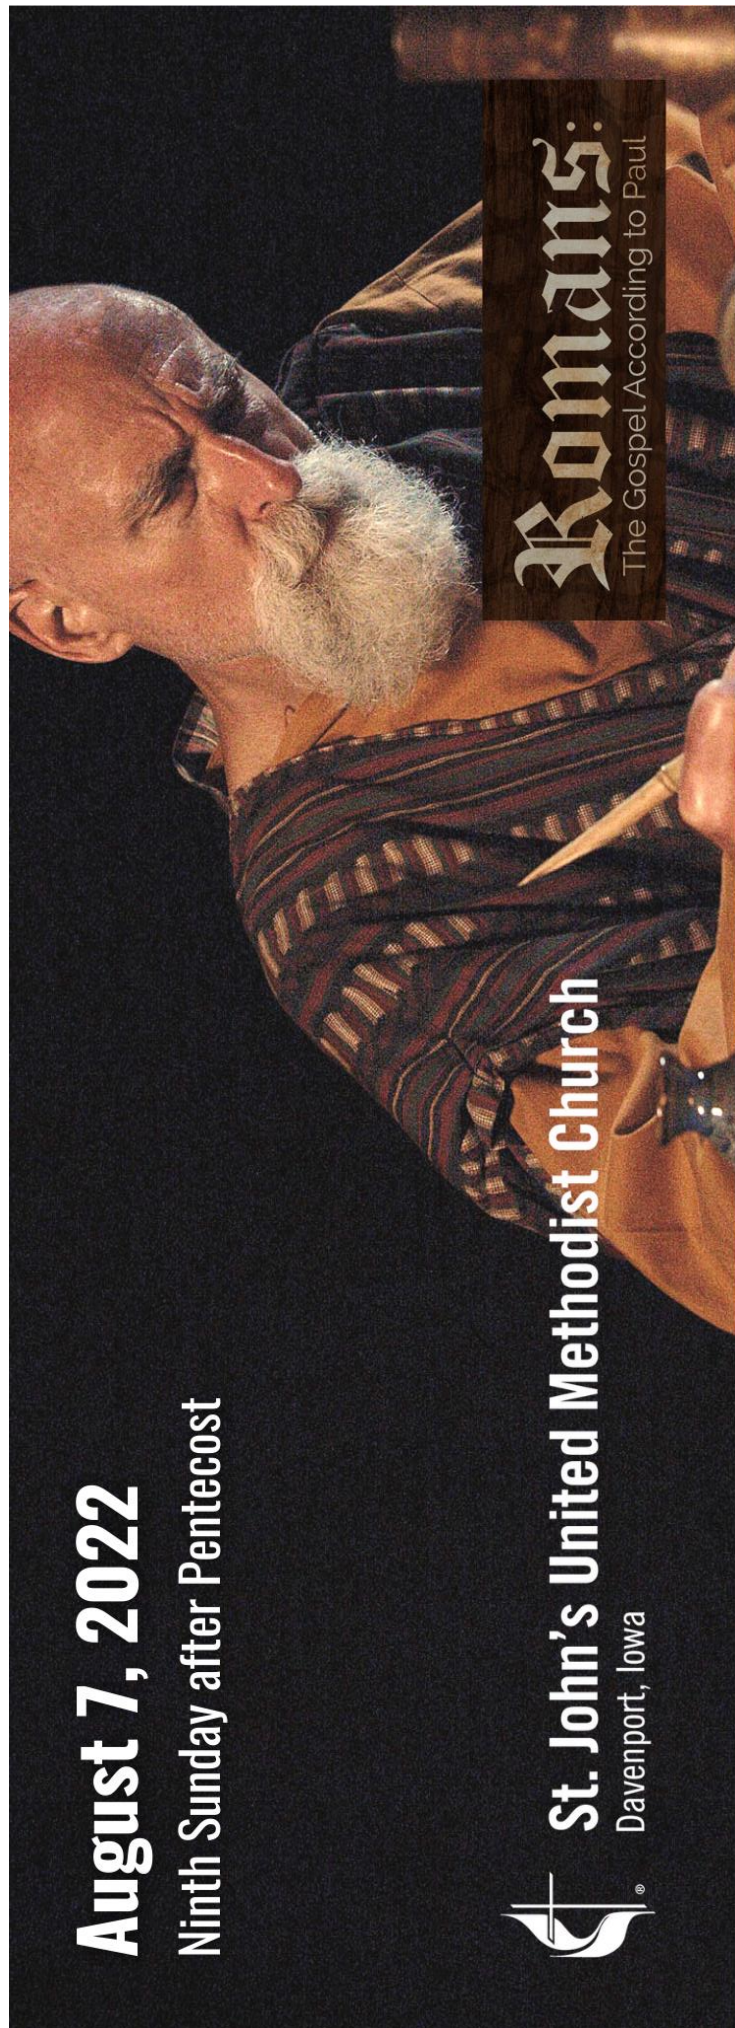

Day 8—Wednesday, August 10—Pray for local school boards that are wrestling with issues—items that make the news and issues that do not. Pray God's guidance with those making important decisions.

Day 9—Thursday, August 11—Pray for students that are anxious about starting at a new school or moving to a new building because they have moved up to a new class level.

Day 10—Friday, August 12—Pray for the schools you know, that they can hire needed bus drivers, staff, and helpers.

Day 11—Saturday, August 13—Pray for students looking forward to more time with friends; pray for students that don't have friends and hope to change that when the new year starts.

Day 12—Sunday, August 14—Pray that God's love would fill the hearts of all who come to have their backpacks blessed this weekend in worship.

The Gospel According to Paul

Scripture Lesson

Romans 14:1-3, 5, 10, 19

Accept the one whose faith is weak, without quarreling over disputable matters. One person's faith allows them to eat anything, but another, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. The one who eats everything must not treat with contempt the one who does not, and the one who does not eat everything must not judge the one who does, for God has accepted them.

One person considers one day more sacred than another; another considers every day alike. Each of them should be fully convinced in their own mind.

You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or why do you treat them with contempt? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.

Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification. No wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.
